

operations manager – information services

- Well Known Financial Institution
- Responsible for 12 Staff
- 120K + Super + Bonus

Senior and influential position available in this iconic financial institution. Our client is looking to employ an Operations Manager to join their Information Services business unit and lead a team of 12 Operations professionals.

Your responsibilities will entail managing the daily flow of information and ensuring that this content is captured and processed in the most efficient and cost effective way. This information will include trading, equity and security data. You will lead the way in improving processes and take responsibility in solving operational or customer problems and to improve procedures to prevent re-occurrence.

You have worked in a content driven business with exposure to data capture and process change, a background in project management will be highly regarded. Demonstrated leadership skills are also a must.

This position is a vitally important role within this organisation as breaks in processes will have far-reaching consequences and attention to detail will be paramount as will your organisational abilities.
