

donor relationships manager

- Optimistic, fun and values driven charity
- Drive direct marketing - grow individual giving
- Attractive remuneration package

Camp Quality is the children's family cancer charity committed to bringing optimism and happiness to the lives of children and families affected by cancer through fun therapy. As one of Australia's top 5 most trusted charities, it provides ongoing quality education, family support, hospital and recreational programs to help families face the bad days and celebrate the good ones.

This strategic yet hands-on role will implement donor strategies responsible for the growth of individual donor support, focused on donor acquisition and conversion, appeals, regular giving, high-net worth individuals and bequests.

You are a fundraising professional with strong direct marketing skills and a commitment to exceptional donor care. You have a track record of building relationships with existing donors and co-ordinating effective donor renewal campaigns. You also have an understanding of bequest and major gift solicitation and possess high level relationship skills, enabling you to work effectively with a diverse group of stakeholders.

If you believe that laughter is the best medicine for kids with cancer and their families, please contact Olivia Ryan on 02 8243 0570 or forward your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting #30451.
