

accountant part time

- Up Market Hospitality Venue
- North Shore Location
- Up to $85K Package pro rata

In early 2005, Northern Suburbs Rugby Club in St Leonards underwent a total transformation and re-opened its doors in June 2005 as the Cabana Bar and Lounge – the new destination for smart drinking and dining on Sydney's Lower North Shore.

You are fully accountable for the control and management of all internal and external financial aspects of the Clubs business activities and will be assisted by a small team. Turnover is approximately $20 million.

This is a great opportunity to utilise your strong technical accounting skills and become an integral part of the business and club. You may be a mother who is looking for a flexible role working 25-30 hours per week or somebody simply seeking an enjoyable part time position.
