

head of fundraising

- Australia's leading nature conservation organisation
- The challenge: double current income
- Salary package over $100K

The Wilderness Society (TWS) has been in existence since the 1976 Franklin River Campaign. The Society is dedicated to the protection and restoration of wilderness and wildlife in precious areas across all Australia's territories including the wilderness of Antarctica.

To enable TWS to achieve its campaign goals, income is generated through a variety of fundraising streams including the committed giving Wilderness Defender program, major donors, bequests, appeals and business development. Data driven, face to face and internet strategies driving donor acquisition, retention and upgrade will be central to your success. You will also manage the public brand of TWS and an enthusiastic team.

You have a track record in managing a similarly complex, rapidly growing nationwide fundraising operation. You have a sound understanding and appreciation of best practice fundraising with highly developed financial and staff management skills. You will have values strongly aligned with TWS' purpose.

If you are passionate about the conservation of threatened flora and fauna and would like to utilise your extensive fundraising experience, please contact Ant Clark on 03 9225 5100 or email your CV to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting job number 28535
