

chief executive officer

- High-profile leadership opportunity
- Establish consumer peak body
- Attractive salary package

ACCAN, the Australian Communications Consumer Action Network, is a newly created peak body for consumer communications issues. ACCAN will provide a strong, coordinated voice for consumers and advocate on their behalf to Government, regulators and industry.

You will establish ACCAN and ensure that consumer communications issues are identified and advanced, while maintaining effective relationships with key stakeholders. Your outstanding staff and financial management skills will be key to the organisation's success.

You are committed to consumer representation, and have a passion for social justice and the highest possible ethical standards. You are currently an experienced manager and possess exceptional leadership ability, strategic thinking and professional maturity.

To provide a strong consumer voice in a new peak body, please call Olivia Ryan on 02 8243 0570 or send resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting reference # 29347.
