

corporate fundraising & events coordinator

- Build corporate relationships
- Key fundraising role
- Collingwood location

Good Shepherd Youth & Family Service is committed to meeting the needs of low income communities and works side by side with the disadvantaged, especially women and girls. The organisation provides a range of services including family counselling, supported and emergency accommodation, 'no interest' loans, foster care and financial counselling as well as social policy and research.

Reporting to the Manager, Marketing & Fundraising, you'll be responsible for the nurturing and development of multi level relationships and partnerships with corporate organisations and foundations, building a strong support base including with individual employees. You will research and prepare funding proposals, develop and manage a program of events and contribute to other projects within the Marketing & Fundraising Unit.

Ideally, you are an experienced business developer with a track record in either sponsorship or fundraising in a philanthropic or cultural setting.

Alternatively, you have developed or assisted with developing commercial partnerships or have managed accounts in the private sector. You feel confident with your ability to develop positive relationships which lead to donations, grants and sponsorships.
