

World Society for the Protection of Animals

country director china

- Beijing based – International NGO
- Leadership opportunity
- Develop and drive new campaigns

The World Society for the Protection of Animals (WSPA) is the world's largest alliance for animal welfare, with a network of over 1000 member societies supporting communities in more than 153 countries.

WSPA is the only animal welfare organisation recognised by the United Nations and the Council of Europe.

You will be responsible for the development and delivery of the business plan in accordance with the regional and international strategy. As the spokesperson you will develop and nurture relations with stakeholders including government authorities, intergovernmental organisations, media and key societies.

You are currently working in a similar role for, but not restricted to, international development, conservation, the UN family or from within a diplomatic corp. You have a deep understanding of the Chinese culture and a track record of success in driving change in the world's most populous nation.

To discuss this opportunity please contact Richard Green or forward your resume or expression of interest quoting reference 30594 to the email address below.

P: +61 2 8243 0570 E: cv@ngorecruitment.com
Sydney, Australia

Blues 146703

140x96