

RANZCO

EA to CEO

- Influential peak body
- Provide strategic executive support
- Surry Hills, one minute walk from Central Station

The Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Ophthalmologists exists to improve the already high standard of eye care in Australia and New Zealand. The College provides a variety of services centred on its core roles as a higher educational institution and learned society.

You will provide high level strategic and operational support to the CEO and Senior Management team of RANZCO extending to the Executive Secretary of the Committee of Presidents of Medical Colleges.

You have several years experience supporting senior management and have the ability to manage conflicting priorities using judgement to resolve complex situations with tact and discretion.

If you would like a challenging role with this influential peak body please contact Annie Barker on 02 8243 0570 or forward your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting reference #30470.
