

face to face coordinator

- Join a best practice fundraising team
- Sydney based with national focus
- Recruit 10,000 donors annually

The Heart Foundation is an independent charity that funds life-saving research, supports health professionals and promotes health in the community. Our vision is for Australians to have the best cardiovascular health in the world.

The Heart Foundation's best-practice fundraising program ensures Australians continue to receive the very best heart health information and cutting edge research.

You will manage a complex face to face program responsible for the recruitment of over 10,000 donors annually. You will ensure acquisition and retention targets are met and ideally exceeded through strategic development, effective coordination of multiple supplier relationships and good governance. Importantly your focus on the donor experience and its influence on increased retention is paramount.

Critical to your success is your knowledge of and direct experience of co-ordinating face to face or street fundraising programs. You have a proven track record managing supplier relationships and a demonstrated ability to analyse and report on program key performance indicators and trends. You are strategic, details driven and focused on results.

If you would like to become part of the team fighting Australia's biggest killer, please call Annie Barker on (02) 8243 0570 or send your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting Ref # 30642.
