

Sir David Martin Foundation
Helping young people in crisis

foundation manager

- Fundraising experience essential
- Help young people achieve their potential

The Sir David Martin Foundation is a fundraising organisation that funds counselling, accommodation, education and training for over 500 young people who have faced homelessness, mental illness, drug and alcohol addiction.

Managing a small team you will guide and grow the Foundation's diverse fundraising strategy that relies upon the support of a dedicated and long term supporter base that reflects the good standing of the late Sir David Martin.

You have fundraising and people management experience with a track record in running annual appeals, bequests and dealing with senior people including individual and corporate donors.

If you are passionate about fundraising to improve the lives of young people then please call Richard Green on 02 8243 0570 or forward your resume to ngo_5a@ngorecruitment.com
