

manager, marketing & recruitment

- Market a new global standard in tertiary legal education
- Increase enrolments across all programs
- 12 month contract – possible extension/perm

As part of one of Australia's most respected universities, this institution will soon be Australia's first fully graduate law school. They offer Graduate, Post Graduate and Graduate Research programs.

As part of a dedicated team of marketing and admissions professionals, your overall responsibility is to increase enrolments through pro-active, service-focused marketing management. Specifically you will develop and implement a strategic plan, collaborate with Program Managers to create marketing collateral and oversee production, create and manage events and manage relationships with internal clients and external suppliers.

You have a relevant tertiary qualification and can demonstrate your marketing and business development success within, ideally, legal services or higher education.

If marketing a superior global legal education interests you please email your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com or call Shiree Thomas on 03 9225 5100 quoting reference 29686.

NGO
Recruitment
A division of Bradman Recruitment