

operations director

- Cutting edge community health organisation
- $10m budget and growing
- 140 staff, multi office location

ACON is a community-based non-government organisation promoting the health and wellbeing of a diverse gay, lesbian, bi-sexual and transgender community, and a leading agency in HIV/AIDS policy development and program delivery.

In a time of domestic and international expansion for ACON you will grow and manage Finance, Human Resources, Information Technology and Business Development units, ensure compliance, and provide high level advice to the CEO, senior management team and Board.

You have extensive experience and an impressive track record in a similar role in either the not for profit or commercial sectors and possess strong commercial acumen with experience in building organisations and effectively managing staff to deliver exceptional results.

If you would like to use your management skills to support the vital work of ACON, please call Olivia Ryan on 02 8243 0570 or send your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting Ref # 29054.

