

relationship manager

CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY

- Drive income to support charitable and pastoral works
- Support the work of the Catholic Church
- Corporate experience welcomed

The Catholic Archdiocese of Sydney provides services, care and support to thousands of people in need including aged and health care, education, prayer, worship & liturgy, solidarity and justice, vocations and seminary, youth and young adults ministry.

This role has been established to manage, promote and deliver the Pastoral Appeal programs through building rapport with existing and prospective supporters. The Appeal includes a variety of income sources including the Cardinal Gilroy Bequest Society, pastoral & school programs, the Charitable Works Fund, the Priests Retirement Foundation, corporate workplace giving, community clubs and philanthropic foundations.

You have a passion for, and a track record in successful relationship development in either a philanthropic, sponsorship or business environment. Your excellent mediation and negotiation skills will mean you are able to build strong rapport with internal and external stakeholders to achieve fundraising goals.

If you're able to demonstrate your business development skills and have the willingness to work within the ethos of the Catholic Church please send your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting reference # 30903 or contact Richard Green or Annie Barker on (02) 8243 0570 for further information.

NGO
Recruitment
A division of Bradman Recruitment

Blaze14505