

director, industrial & organising

- Industry union - Media, Entertainment & Arts
- Lead a skilled team of organisers
- Implement industrial and organising strategies

The Media Entertainment & Arts Alliance is the professional organisation and trade union for the media, entertainment and arts industries. It represents actors, journalists and entertainment industry employees and has over 20,000 members. This role reports to the Federal Secretary and will ideally be based in Sydney but flexible for the right candidate.

With the needs of members front of mind, you will have the goal of growing the union to build power at work for the people who inform and entertain Australia. Leading a skilled team of organisers and industrial staff, you will develop and implement the industrial and organising strategies of the Alliance. This will include coordination of workplace campaigns including collective bargaining across a variety of large and small workplaces. You will coordinate campaigns to build power for contingent workers in the industry. You will have skills and initiative to plan campaigns, manage staff, coordinate work with other leaders of the organisation to achieve targeted outcomes, negotiate outcomes and manage relations with other stakeholders.

You are currently performing a similar role in a like-minded organisation with the expected high level of enthusiasm and initiative this important role demands.

If you want to advance the interests of the people who inform and entertain Australia and have the skills required we want to hear from you. Please contact Richard Green or Annie Barker on 02 8243 0570 or forward your resume to cv@ngorecruitment.com quoting ref # 30968.
