

licensing & product development manager

- Marketing licensed brands
- Develop new markets and product lines

The Cancer Council Australia is the nation's peak non-government cancer control organisation.

A role has been created for a senior manager with a track record in FMCG or licensing to expand existing markets for The Cancer Council's extensive range of sun-protection products sold nationally.

Working with a professional and committed team, you will employ your well honed analytical, reporting and presentation skills to identify and exploit opportunities for market expansion, product extensions and new product lines.

You will have solid marketing experience and excellent negotiation and communication skills, to initiate and maintain strong relationships with key stakeholders, licensees and partners.

This is a unique opportunity to use your commercial experience to benefit a cause that touches the lives of millions. Call Heather Knights on 02 8243 0570 or send your resume to ngo_140@ngorecruitment.com if you are the person we are looking for.
