

World Society for the Protection of Animals

development manager

- Commercial or not-for-profit experience
- Young, dynamic global animal welfare organisation

WSPA works with hundreds of member societies worldwide to raise the standard of international animal welfare. Their vision is for "a world where animal welfare matters and animal cruelty ends".

This new position will develop and implement quality strategies to work with high value donors to increase year on year income through major gifts and bequests.

You will have experience in one-on-one donor or sales relationships, able to negotiate successful outcomes.

Your strategic skills will enable you to target prospects, including young professionals who share WSPA's vision, with innovative ways to support the organisation's work.

Looking for a chance to make your mark?

If you want to take an active role in helping the plight of animals around the world, and can demonstrate your success in raising significant donations for not-for-profit organisations, or in high value non-tangible sales, we want to hear from you.
