

director, client services

- HIV/AIDS, Mental Health, Ageing Focus
- Cutting edge program delivery

ACON is a community-based non-government organisation promoting the health and wellbeing of a diverse gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender community, and leading agency in HIV/AIDS policy development and program delivery.

In this role you will provide leadership to the Client Services team including clinical, positive living programs, home-based care, transport and housing programs. Delivering innovative support for people living with HIV/AIDS and those affected by HIV is a key aspect of this role, as is the development of new health and welfare programs for the GLBT community including in the areas of mental health and ageing.

This will involve you in

- coordinating the functions and staff of the division
- working as part of the senior management team
- advising on relevant strategic, policy and program matters across the organisation.

To succeed you must be politically astute with proven people and organisational skills coupled with management level experience in HIV/AIDS or mental health or ageing health care services or similar.

If you have what it takes, are enthusiastic and energetic, you will be rewarded with enormous job satisfaction, a passionate and committed team, and an attractive salary package to match your experience.
